What User likes about Oak City Café: Great service, good food. The man who owns the restaurant is one of the nicest people I have ever met and his wife makes the most amazing jelly you will ever try! You can even buy a glass in the restaurant read more. What User doesn't like about Oak City Café:
Price: cheap serving size: perfect for lunch doggo friendly: unknown. There are a few picnic tables in the front. Visibility: It is easy to overlook; it is a small diner next to the Day's Inn. I had vegetarian biryani w shrimps; my better half had the fish plate. The ducks were well prepared (the fish is air fried). The vegetables were slightly overcooked; tastes good, but the texture was not 100%... The woman makes... read more.
