We decided to eat outside, and they have several tables under an open tent. When the sun went down, light strands arrived and added to the ambience. I kept it easy because I wanted room for dessert, so I got bread and butter to start. The butter was soft and spread, and the bread was delicious. Then I got the genomes, which was essentially a caprese salad, with mozzarella, basil, olive oil and balsamikum. I would hav... read more. This Bistro stands out for its smallness, but finesse, not only for its ambience, but also due to its offerings of typical, delectable dishes at traditionally reasonable prices, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially comprehensive variety of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. Not to be left out is the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, There are also tasty South American meals on the menu.
