What User likes about La Industria: Solid brunch menu, good options for vegetarians too! I had the spring veggie frittata with a potato cake and my husband had the chilaquiles. This was our second time for brunch and it was just as perfect as the first. For consistent service, food quality and a hidden jewel, here dine! read more. What User doesn't like about La Industria:

The food was overall okay, spices and sauces were good. The restaurant itself is nice. The preparation of their dishes is not true Tex Mex. For us being practically the only table, service wasn't on point. Likely wouldn't return. read more.
