A really nice Tex Mex restaurant that happens to be at the mall. The food was great. The service was excellent and the costs were not bad. My fish was perfectly cooked. The appetizer chips and salsa were very good. I'd come back here any chance I could. read more. What User doesn't like about Canyon Cafe:

Could've been better. Been here several times and seems to be hit or miss. Most recent visit was a carry out order and they forgot all of the toppings that came with fajitas we had ordered so no cheese, no guacamole, no sour cream, no pico and no margarita slaw. Called to let them know and was told manager would call me back, but never did receive a call or follow up. Maybe you will have better luck but there are so... read more. If you're desiring some hot South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: delicious dishes, prepared with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied assortment of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. In this locale there is also an comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, and you can enjoy here fine American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
