Solid. After eating there several times I can say that it is a pretty good place for BBQ. So much about BBQ is subjective, but the universal things like price, portion sizes and service are all good at Bandana. The BBQ is more of a Texas style: smoked and dry served, with sauce on the side. There are three or four flavors on the table. This is much more of a country-style place and the BBQ is much better than some pl... read more.
