I grew up in the area and I haven't walked in until today. I always thought it was nothing special, but I'm so glad to be wrong. The pad thai had a lot of meat in it (most places like to give you as little as possible), the soups were delicious, and the puffs I had were amazing! My husband got the duck and enjoyed it thoroughly (he wanted it to be more spicy, but the waitress assured us that we could call next time).... read more. What User doesn't like about Royal Thai:

The service was great and attentive, and the dining area was welcoming and very peaceful. The spring rolls were the star of the meal. Very fresh, not oily and ultra fluffy. The bbq spits were unfortunately very chewing, and the Satay was on average. For the net the Pad Se Ew ok, but the duck shell was strange. The meat was fat, the skin lacked crabs and was excessively salty. Despite ordering as Thai hot, the spices... read more. Royal Thai from Enterprise prepares delightful menus, refined with the known spices and (fish-)sauces of the Thai cuisine, along with plenty of fresh vegetables, seafood and meat, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Royal Thai. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
