I love this breakfast place. I live here and at any time, if I can, I would go here because how nice the service. The restaurant is family-friendly for children and, in my opinion, is really underestimated. read more. What User doesn't like about Pegah's Kitchen:

The server was swapped so I won't blame her. But the food sucked warm orange juice, weak coffee, cold cookies and gravitation, and a warm waffle... Eating was bland and that was nice. After drinking the first cup of coffee flavored water, I could never withdraw our server to get another. Go to Mama Kats instead. read more.
