That was AWESOME! I've been in Texas for 25 years and use good food. I took my wife here to see what it is about. You nailed it! Amanda and the staff were excellent. She told us first timers the entire menu and recommended large appetizers. Normally, the Trap Star is a two-person menu, but I swallowed the whole thing. The prices were on the high side, BUT you get what you pay. Recommended 10 out of 10, we will be bac... read more. What User doesn't like about The Seafood Trap:

Interesting restaurant and pretty new still (server said they opened 6/10/2017). It's BYOB and they offer Pepsi products too. Pretty small, only about a dozen tables. Cutesy wall decorations for the seafood theme, but the actual tables and chairs are basically church-quality. Not uncomfortable, but simple. The fries are really good (cut like waffle fries but seasoned like curly fries at most places). The shrimp and c... read more.
