We could no longer have enjoyed our visit 7/30/21. The lobster was fantastic that we really loved the bread and how soft and toasty it was. The location was amazing a beautiful pier overlooking the small marina and the march with an osprey nest. But what really did it was the staff so friendly and friendly. They said they usually close after the summer, but can run until September. Finger crossed it is a long season... read more.
