What User likes about Philly's Seafood: This place has large seafood, I always get my flounder plate did not evaporate butter and I never have problems. Pages are a good part and they have homemade iced tea!!! read more. What User doesn't like about Philly's Seafood:

For the price it's ok. The crabs are very small, and all of my crabs were female which left me with little to no meat. Filled with the bright orange stuff. They were properly cooked and seasoned well. They weren't boiled they were as described steamed. The fried flounder was good, it wasn't soggy at all. It also didn't taste fishy like spoiled fish. The broccoli and cheese was good. The macaroni was 'mhe' meaning... read more. If you're desiring some spicy South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: tasty meals, prepared with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu.
