Overall, the few times I was here were pleasant. The food is really great and my going is definitely the chicken and waffle. It takes 20min, but it is a hearty portion and definitely worth waiting. I can also highly recommend the French toast, also as a side, it is so dang good! The grilled artichoke, Karamell's pig bell, and the Calamari are great appetizers. The only small complaint I have is the service that it is... read more.
