This place is a MUST SEE. The artifacts on the wall are enough reason but the history lesson and stories from the bartender made us feel the place come alive. We learned so much and met some really nice people while there. The only downside was I accidentally left my money at the end of the bar and didn't realize it until I got back to my hotel. But I still had a great time. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What Susan Smith doesn't like about Wild Bill:

The website stated we could eat there but the bartender said no food. A $2 surcharge for purchase under $10. It costs $10 to see the museum and an additional cost to take pictures. Price per person: $1–10 Service: 3 Atmosphere: 3 read more. Wild Bill from Deadwood is respected for its tasty burgers, to which appetizing fries, salads and other sides are presented, The barbecue is freshly grilled here on an open flame. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a sophisticated diversity of scrumptious and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
