The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Ron Kirlin doesn't like about Talkeetna Roadhouse:

I heard so many good things about this place that we were looking forward to eating here. When we arrived, the sign indicated that they are only serving to their hotel guests and a few lucky people who timed the outside window just right. Like...every other place in the USA, they can't find enough help. read more.
