What User likes about Philly Junction:

The first day after Hurricane Ian, these guys were open. 1 woman who normally did not serve, and 1 man cooking and executing food. They were not open for immersion, but you were welcome to sit at a table to wait for your food. The cheese steak had a lot of meat and onions. Delicious. The service was patient and fast. God bless both. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its customers, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Philly Junction:

Trashhhhhh. Immigrated and waited to be greeted after their sign at the door. I wanted to place an order. On the front that waited 5 minutes at the counter, and no one came out. The door makes a sound when they've entered. Two tables sat and had only drinkers. Was dying to try this place, but ended down to mike jersey. Oh, good. read more. In case you're hungry some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: exquisite meals, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, The menus of this restaurant can also be enjoyed at on-site or at the celebration thanks to a catering service. If you decide to come for breakfast, a tasty brunch is ready for you, and you can indulge in fine American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
