We wanted to eat there on the way back from Hana. We had two empty cups that we wanted to throw away before we ordered food, and we didn't know they didn't take any garbage out. A woman worked, and how she stopped and muttered to other people, was unacceptably rude. There's always a good way to tell people something. If you're unable to do it, then don't work for food or any service company. And it seems to us? not t... read more.
