I enjoy how friendly and polite some people can be, I've seen that in the staff. I appreciate that they took the time/care to make fresh food and when the frits were burned, they made a fresh batch to make sure we got good food. First of all the food was cold. It seemed like we got the bottom of the fries. The wraps were not even wrapped properly. They were wrapped like tacos. Everything was stale. And worst of all, the cokes tasted awful. It was very disappointing. I usually like Hardees but I dont know what happened. I hope for a better experience next time. If there is a next time.
