Beautiful little place with the most beautiful food. Real food, not processed like most restaurants. The food takes a while to get out and the menu is limited, but it is finally a wine place! read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Hailey Triplett doesn't like about

Red Or White At The Wharf:

My husband and I were looking for a new wine to try, and we were treated as nothing but an inconvenience. My husband tried to ask about a certain wine-and was cut off by one of the employees with a rude response. Didn't bother drinking anything there. Got out as quickly as possible due to the nasty attitudes the two workers had. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious meals from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good selection of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Undoubtedly, the highlight of this restaurant is the fine Sushi such as Nigiri and Inside-Out, and you can expect original Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
