Sept 24-25, 2019: We were in Sonora to see the Caverns. Our hotel had weak coffee, so on a quest for coffee we found the Bump Gate. It was fabulous! We returned the next day and had spectacular pancakes, toast, bacon-cooked-just-right, and coffee of course! They have Texan-rustic decor, which I love. Wonderful crew; and an all-around great place to meet, greet and eat! read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What Harry C doesn't like about Bump Gate Cafe:

We won't return. Happened upon this place after stopping in the middle of nowhere driving from Vegas to Houston. A bit pricey for what you get but I think that's because they're in the oil patch and alternative fast food or Mexican food. So they're a niche. It's a nice atmosphere, food is okay the lettuce was old and black tinged (photo) so I picked that out and the deli corned beef was wafer thin (photo) — I'm used... read more. If you're craving some zesty South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: exquisite meals, prepared with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also on the menu, The customers of the establishment are also thrilled with the large variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning.
