My wife said she liked it better than the local authentic Mexican restaurant where we live, from which I was surprised how it is very special. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. It's definitely always an event to be in a typical saloon and to consume; to feel like a cowboy for once with a beer and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a delicious burger, Many customers are also especially looking forward to the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine. You can also look forward to fine vegetarian cuisine.
