We have been there several times now and loved it every time. All of the food is delicious. The pan fried rainbow trout is worth the trip by itself nevermind with the au gratin potatoes and fresh salad and warm bread. Try the spaghetti with their homemade meat sauce or the chicken alfredo if you don't want fresh fish, absolutely delicious. Just go try them, You won't be disappointed or hungry when your done. WiFi is available free of charge. What earl smith doesn't like about Sandpiper:

Popular restaurant, but the food is just ok....not fantastic. Had the Halibut and it wasn 't horrible, but certainly wasn 't the best. The server was spread thin so the service was slow, For drink refills, I found myself vying for the server 's attention...the atmosphere is rustic and crowded, so it can be noisy. I wouldn 't say don 't dine here....but I probably won 't be going back. read more. Sandpiper from White Stone is the perfect place if you want to try delightful American courses like burgers or barbecue, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, You can also discover delicious South American dishes on the menu.
