What User likes about Goosetown Café: They changed their menu, but the food is very good and high quality. Cocktails always creative and tasty as well as the deserts. I can't wait for them to eat outside and shut the street back. The owners are fantastic and were walking around, personable like f*ck, and checking on all tables, although they did not necessarily wait for it. I can't remember the name of the female owners, but she stayed and chatted with u... read more. Will need to try other options like the shakshuka, but I was extremely disappointed by the brioche French toast. It sounded so good, but the bread was kind of grainy, almost close to corn bread. I thought brioche was light and fluffy. The lemon crème fraiche sounded great but there wasn't enough to taste it. And usually similar French toasts come with fresh berries which would've made a great addition. Would not orde... read more.
