Quite delectable food, with lots of options of north and south indian dishes. Fast and efficient service and reasonably priced. Good option for students and parents visiting Purdue University. Food: 4/5 read more. What

Ken Adams doesn't like about Dakshin:

The dal and the paneer dishes we ordered were raw. Completely raw. There was music playing in the restaurant but it's a self-serve and the food is not worth it. The Naan we ordered was cold and felt reheated. Do not recommend if you want good Indian food. Vegetarian options: They have vegetarian options, but the restaurant has a big sign saying food allergy notice. The sign says all food could be contaminated by fish,... read more. At Dakshin from West Lafayette it's possible to taste delicious vegetarian menus, that were made without any animal meat or fish, One also prepares meals finely and freshly with traditional Indian spices.
