The restaurant from Louisville offers 17 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average $8.8. What William B likes about Lucky Burrito:

The burritos are very good but it's kind of a hidden place within la Suerte so I'm not sure why they are separate businesses. I really wish they had a shrimp burrito I'm just a patron not an owner. I will say that the head chef of Lucky burrito and la Suerte is a true chef and not just a cook. This place is a little more on the pricey side but you get what you pay for and that is quality. The only thing that is frust... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WLAN is available without additional charges. What Oddfrid Chrysis doesn't like about Lucky Burrito:

Place is closed. Directed us next door where we were provided menus for the restaurant next door. There's no $2.50 tacos. And to top it off, you get two tacos! Two! Who eats two? Now I have to buy two sets of tacos for $24 when anyone ever only wants three! Ridiculous. Walked out. Stop advertising a place that's closed so you can push people to pay higher prices for less. Lucky Burrito from Louisville is a suitable bar to have a beer after work, and hang out with friends, A catering service offered by the restaurant allows you to eat the dishes on-site or at the function. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub presents a generous diversity of delicious and local alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, Many visitors are especially looking forward to the diverse, delicious Mexican cuisine.
