We're just here for the weekend, and we got takeout from here. It was amazing! The shredded beef empenadas were so good, and the side dishes of rice and beans were really good. They make these sauces that are like quacamole sauce and it really made the meal. The roast beef was very tender. They don't skimp on the servings.

We'll definitely come back next time we're in town!! read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. WLAN is available free of charge. What Rodolfo Garcia doesn't like about El Arepaso Venezuelan Cafe:

Not a great experience. Maybe because I went 30 minutes before closing. Body language and attitude while I was ordering looked like they didn't want me there. The food was good but the experience as well do matter. read more. The establishment also offers its visitors a catering service, Spanish dishes with their spicy savory sauces and spices are popular among the visitors. One also cooks South American here with fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice, and you have the opportunity to try fine American dishes like Burger or Barbecue.
