We've stopped in here several times over the years, as well as the other location. It's good not great, but definitely works if you want a burger and fries that's better than average. I tried the fried chicken sandwich last time and not bad, but I'm going burger next time. Onion rings are the beer battered kind, and they are good but I honestly prefer the panko style. Overall it's good. I'll definitely be back if it's... read more.
