Very cute patio area with plenty of shaded options as well as spots in the sun. My server, Brooke, was very kind and attentive. I started with the bloody mary (they also offer a loaded option) and it was tasty. For lunch I ordered the lobster roll, which came with the option of pasta salad or pineapple coleslaw. The pasta salad was pretty generic, but nice as a cool side option. However, the lobster roll was delightf... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. What Denise W doesn't like about On The Bay Boutique Cafe:

I guess we just had a one off experience compared to others. My husband and I came in around 5:30 and were seated immediately and took our drink orders. After a few minutes the waitress came back for food orders. It was around 30 minutes of waitresses walking back and forth to serve other tables but pass by us each time. After that time we had a different waitress come over and give us our bill before we even receive... read more.
