Almost every time I go to Manhattan, I'm going here for lunch. The food is always at the point, delicious ending very satisfying. If you are ever close to a Sophie kitchen, make sure you pass and have a meal. read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Sophie's Cuban Cuisine (8th Ave):

Lunch. Very fast to realize that it is extremely disorganized. You have to order at a counter and then pay at the other end of the counter. Then get a tablet and pick up your food at the original counter. Don't make sense! Couldn't they just run the food down at the checkout? The seat layout makes no sense, small chairs that are placed directly on one another, it can simply be reorganized to fit more comfortable tabl... read more.
