Stopped in for dinner for the first time. Greeters and servers were terrific. The food was very fresh and offered several vegetarian options. Meals not too heavy despite all being served with a generous portion of rice and beans. The flan was fantastic. Fyi closes early.. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Kim Davitt doesn't like about Parrando's Tex-mex Grill:

So having lived 59 years in Texas this is not TexMex. The chef needs to travel to Texas and eat at many TexMex places to understand. Without explaining every detail of the differences, I will say food was tasty but not hot from preparation and there is no spice. Waiters are super nice. The place is super clean too. I think maybe they cater to local's tastebuds which is good but take TexMex out of restaurant name beca... read more.
