Go during their happy hour. You may have to wait for a bit because happy hour is only at the bar but it's worth it.

There were some people standing out in the patio area that were able to order food so if you don't mind not sitting, this could be an option. The Oysters were fresh tasting and cleaned pretty well. The Sweet Jesus ones were by far my favorite. The pre-detach the meat so you don't need to do it yourself. Th... read more.
