The owner is fantastic and super helpful if you don't know what you're order helps you also decide on your level of spices for sauces by letting them test out of the need. The food was still hot when I came back to the office to eat and it was also absolutely delicious. Will definitely come back! Edit: I am back several times. The food is just as delicious and the staff is just as nice. When someone asks What is for... read more. What Footage doesn't like about Prime Empanada:

These empanadas are excessively greasy and oily, giving them a taste similar to biting into a flavorless sponge saturated with old oil. On top of that, they are surprisingly expensive, costing over $4.15 each. Moreover, there is hardly any meat filling inside. There's no way I would consider going back; I'm thoroughly disappointed.?
