We stopped from this donut shop while visiting Rainbow Springs. We tried the donuts, apple fritter and bagels. Everything was delicious. The only problem we had was the woman who helped us was visibly annoyed when we picked our donuts. The ladies in the shop were rude for a few other customers while we were there. My children even commented, why are they so mean for their customers? I give them a four-star rating bas... read more. Dani Hurley doesn't like about Go For Donuts:

New owners revamped everything. Looks very nice and the donuts taste the same but I was very dissatisfied with the change in quality of products for breakfast sandwiches : . The sandwiches used to be my favorite part . Great cheese real egg and sausage they even cut it in half for easy eating on the go but now it's equivalent to frozen Jimmy deans ?.. thank goodness the donuts are still good . It does look nice but a... read more. At Go For
