As the name implies, this place is always yummy. Usually we do take out. But tonight we a dine in kind of day. Our server was so sweet and did am excellent job checking on us and assisting with ordering. The sweet and sour chicken is my husbands favorite. I had the Szechuan scallions. If you can eat here, do! We were really disappointed in our experience here. I do not leave many negative reviews the food is lacking in flavor. It's primarily just covered in sauces. The real issue I had was the lack of service. They did fill drinks but we had to ask multiple times for dishes never brought to our table. One of the dishes wasn't correct, And the server gave us attitude about it! The woman greeting at the door was pleasant. N... read more.
