I really wish to give it a 5 star since it has been my favorite Chinese franchise since way before it changed it's name to happy lamb (it used to be little sheep). Had it so many times around Asia/America. This particular location however makes their soup base lighter than other ones, so the flavor is a little less. I like their side bar and small dishes area. But there's not as many choices in the seasoning section... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What Saher Nafees doesn't like about Happy Lamb Hot Pot:

Really good food. Broth was delicious and so was the meat. However, not the best place to bring small children as they are charged almost same as an adult for AYCE. MY 2 year old barely eats anything except rice and noodles and her total came out to be $29. I was expecting it to be maybe $10 max because everyone knows small toddlers don't eat anything. However, otherwise it's a good restaurant and good quality food.... read more.
