This is a nice, beachfront ice cream parlor. It sells Hershey's ice cream, many flavors of which I like a lot, and which are hard to get. Portions are generous. I ordered Oatmeal Cookie Craving on one visit, Better Brownie Batter on another, and Midnight Caramel River on the last. All were delicious. There are places to sit, so you can eat a cone (or bowl) without taking it into the heat where it would melt fast. If... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What M Schlund doesn't like about Haley's Ice Cream Store:

Staff is just teenagers and they don't seem to care much to do anything other than joke and talk with each other while people are waiting. We left and went to another shop. read more. If you want to a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, Haley's Ice Cream Store from Holden Beach is a good bar, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this eatery is impressive and offers a good and extensive assortment of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. In this restaurant there is also an large variety of coffee and tea specialties not to forget.
