What Ben S likes about Ginzaya Japanese: I can't not say this is the best sushi spot in Lakewood. The pieces are always a good size, they are timely, and the servers are really nice. The prices are sensible, despite the happy hour menu not having the deals that it used to have prior to this weird "recession/inflation", you can still come here and get good value for quality sushi. And they always have a game on, they have a projector and plenty of TV's so you... read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What Ari Henning doesn't like about Ginzaya Japanese:

Had a reservation but stood around for 10 minutes before anyone greeted us, even though it wasn't very busy. Slow service, definitely mediocre sushi. Prices are affordable, so I guess that's good? This place came highly recommended from someone, but I won't be back. read more. With original Asian spices delicious traditional meals are prepared in the kitchen of Ginzaya Japanese in Lakewood, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to cook easily digestible Japanese dishes. The delicious Sushi such as Maki and Sashimi however, is the undisputed highlight of this establishment, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
