I said mustard not mayonnaise, but the $4 plate came with fat fries (one was almost 5 inches long) and a can of soda. Big screen TV was showing Kung Fu Panda in Spanish. Atmosphere was softly festive and depicted murals of Mexican rural life. Has ice cream and chopped fruits of at least 10 varieties for non-alcoholic beverages. Wi-Fi was too expensive, so it's not offered now as advertised outside. I would say the meat... read more. What Ruben Martinez doesn't like about Taqueria La Huasteca:

Paid 11$ To get a finger length size burrito which was primarily cheese, one scoop of beans and what seems to be week old hard rice. Other food was exact same quality. read more. Look forward to the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers).
