I quite literally come here like 2 times a week bc my roommate and I have a little bit of a problem???? Nonetheless, the service is always great and so is the food. The staff is so kind and my order has never been messed up: read more. What Bastian Knappe doesn't like about Albasha Express: I grew up in Lafayette with an Iranian stepfather, we ate Zeus since I was a child so I'm very partial to them and am very biased. As it goes, Albasha's chicken has way too much cardamom, you can tell that the gyro has a lot of beef compared to lamb. Zeus offers a drink with their combo plate, and they make their hummus in-house for 4 dollars less. Dry chicken is excusable. Pita is wasteful. Not a 15-dollar meal. Very disappointed... Albasha Express from Baton Rouge offers fine, light Mediterranean cuisine with its typical meals, guests repeatedly praise the tasty, light flatbread that can be dipped into the self-made hummus or a yogurt dip; the intense combination of figs and goat cheese is among the standout dishes from the diverse culinary landscape of the Middle East. The restaurant also provides Greek specialties like Gyros and Souvlaki with the matching sides. Likewise, the guests of the restaurant prefer the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialties that the establishment provides.
