Stopped for a quick dinner after landing late at the Miami airport and was pleasantly surprised. Although the restaurant air felt stagnant and smelled of astringent cleaning product, the staff were professional and friendly, and the food was higher quality Southern comfort food. We got the ribs and the smothered pork chops. Parking: On-site angled parking in front of the restaurant read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What Bilal doesn't like about Southern Style Kitchen Grill:

Well, food was expensive for the quantity given and quality was not there. I had chicken wings and mac&cheese. Neighborhood a little sketchy as well. Parking: Very small and really a walk up place.
