This place was so good I forgot to take a picture before I started eating. Classic Korean dishes and that authentic vibe. This one might be difficult for non-Koreans to know what to order, but I'm sure if you ask nicely they will point you in the right direction. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Helen Yang doesn't like about New Seoul:

The bone soup had a musty smell, probably because the meat had been frozen for a long time, and there were three cabbage leaves and a few bean sprouts. If we raised the price because of inflation, we would not be able to do better. Service: Dine in Meal type: Lunch Price per person: $30–50 Food: 1 Service: 1 Atmosphere: 1 Recommended dishes: read more. The establishment also offers its guests a catering service. Likewise, the guests of the restaurant prefer the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides. Not to forget are the typical Korean dishes like Kimchi, Bap and also Jjigae, which have a fixed place on the menu card and also on the plates of the customers, and you can look forward to the delicious traditional seafood cuisine.
