we tried tango empanadas after an article about them in a local time. the savory empanadas were absolutely delicious! they offer a lot of taste options, both savory and sweet empanadas. we had the chicken, spicy ground beef, brisket empanadas and peach/cream cheese. unfortunately I did not find the peach/cream cheese in taste.

I will definitely be back for the savory empanadas. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Tango Empanadas Bakery:

The empanadas are ok, They have a lot of filling and good taste. But the place is very dirty, the only 2 tables there are full of grease and dust, only one trash can that I didn't even want to touch because seeing it made me sick. And I wonder, if this is how it is outside where the customers are, what is it like inside in the kitchen where the empanadas are made?? You need to clean up that place. read more. If you're hungry for some tasty South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: tasty dishes, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American dishes like Burger or Barbecue. Would you rather enjoy the food in your own four walls or at a special place like a festival? Thanks to the in-house catering, that's no problem, Also, there are oven-warm baked goods available, complemented by an array of both cold and hot drinks.
