I have been a customer of this location for at least 7 years now, and have never been disappointed with the quality of sushi served at the price they charge. It is not the best sushi I have ever had but is the best over all in terms of getting the most for your dollar. The staff have always been friendly and in seven years I have always received exactly what I ordered without even forgetting to add my side of spicy m... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What Theresa? K? doesn't like about Sakura Japan: This used to be a go to place for us. Now not so much. Food wasn't bad but not great, we got the all you can eat sushi. The price has gotten a little too high for the quality, the price has jumped up like 20 percent recently. They used to have much more variety available but now they sushi is very limited I didn't see any eel or salmon on the all you can eat where they used to have both. The waitress brought things q...
