What User likes about Elderberry Inn: What a wonderful stop on our trip from the Oregon coast to PDX. The bakery had the most delicious breakfast sandwiches on an English muffin or (as hubby selected) a tall and fluffy biscuit. I had the bear claw. Both were fresh and tasty. We watched the bakers at work for a few minutes. They clearly take pride in their work! The entire bill was $4.75. We couldn't believe the quality, quantity and value! Make a stop at... These rooms are overpriced for the small area you get. There is an odor that you can't seem to get rid of. The bar staff seems mostly great but then the hotel staff is rude and unapproachable. Even worse the owner Emily has no idea what goes on in her hotel and has no solutions to any issues you bring up. I would not recommend this place read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious cuisine from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good assortment of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, The dishes are usually prepared in the shortest time and fresh for you. If you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch awaits you, Likewise, the customers of the establishment prefer the large variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
