I haven't eaten here yet, but it looks like a really cool spot very rustic and country decent prices and the food looks good with good portions. It's a nice area with a bunch of other shops and a nice coffee shop close by read more. What Katie Smith doesn't like about Cadillac Cafe:

Very disappointed in the service and portions of food. Things have really changed since being under new ownership, prices are higher and portions are way smaller. We waited an hour to get our food and when we finally received it the portion of steak was the smallest I've ever seen please view attached image, all that had been eaten was the eggs and toast and when asked about the portion of steak that was served the new...
