The place from South Burlington offers 17 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $8.4. What Catherine Moller likes about The Mill Market:

I can never say enough good things about the Mill Market and Deli. Nestled in a charming corner of the city, this hidden gem offers a combination of a market and a deli, making it a one stop shop for a quick lunch, a relaxed shopping experience, or even just grabbing some ingredients for your home cooked meals. The Mill Market and Deli has saved quite a few holiday celebrations with their tasty pie and prepared food s... read more. What Erin Edebohls doesn't like about The Mill Market:

Disappointed in The Mill lately. We order from the deli quite a bit and stop in for creemees. The other night my daughter got a creemee that was anything but, it was chunky and not very flavorful. Today I ordered sandwiches online, and every sandwich was prepared improperly: wrong bread, no tomatoes, other missing or added condiments, etc. We paid $50 for lunch and were very disappointed. The last time we ordered the... read more.

An additional service offered by the establishment is the catering service for guests. Besides the delicious sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks also make a good snack. Here they also cook South American fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and potatoes, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast.
