Great noodles. The cold noodles were especially springy but watch out for your shirt when eating. The hot noodle soup was delicious too. Not a lot of appetizer dishes compared to other Korean restaurants. Parking is available behind the restaurant. read more. What Jennifer Liang doesn't like about Myung Dong Noodle House:

This place was bustling on a Saturday evening, but the wait was worth it! We had seafood pancake and a kalguksu to share. They are quite generous with the portions, as well as the kimchi and pickled cabbage. The servers were very nice and attentive and was had a blast there. If only it was easier to get to from Manhattan! read more. In Fort Lee, traditional menus are prepared in the kitchen of Myung Dong Noodle House with original

Asian spices fine, Also, fans of Korean cuisine will be fully satisfied at the restaurant with meals like Bap, Kimchi or Jjigae. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Myung Dong Noodle House. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known dishes too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, and you can look forward to the fine classic seafood cuisine.
