I always enjoy myself when I go to Ikea. Of course can't leave without having some meat balls. But, the only thing is done items are price some items are price differently on the shelf and when you go to the register price don't match then you have to wait forever, when they send someone to look for an item they can find. So I'm very disappoint in the area when home without the item that I wanted on the price on the... read more.
