Always in and out. Curbside is convenient for busy times. During rush hour that turn lane is dangerous. They need better parking accommodations as well as drive thru. Entrance is inconvenient at the location it is in. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its customers. What Kyle Lemay doesn't like about Raising

Cane's Chicken Fingers:

Today I went to get some food for me and my mom and I got home and opened my food and got the worst food I ever got since I've been eating canes food the chicken strips were so small I thought it was a joke when I went back they didn't have an answer for me why the chicken was so small and anybody who eats at canes know how big the strips are I mean come on all they sell is chicken read more.
