What User likes about Red Onion: Kids friendly with intelligent toys. Dishes were good except oyster omelet (too plain). Nice dining environment and service. The decoration showed the love to the lovely Taiwan read more. What User doesn't like about Red Onion:

I went here because of the good reviews that I saw online. Their service is fine, and the place is quite comfortable, except for the restroom, which was quite dirty. The food we ordered was disappointing. The scallion pancake was just like fried dough with barely any scallion. The oyster omelet barely had any oysters. Their price was reasonable. However, to compromise the quality of the food is not acceptable. read more. With the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Red Onion becomes even more attractive.
