The vibe and service are good, just not great. It's suffering from lack of effort in that respect. However... the food! Really good rolls and they still serve Miami's best Thai food. read more. What Zenodotus Of A doesn't like about Bangkok Bangkok:

To me, the food was really high priced. I expected the main dish to come with soup or salad, but it didn't. It seems you have to order that separate, which makes this place even more expensive. All my life I've eaten in Chinese and Thai restaurants where soup comes with the main dish. I understand inflation has made things tougher. While I can afford the food I still like to get value and don't feel like throwing my... read more. For you, Bangkok Bangkok from Miami prepares fine sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out), in numerous other versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat.
