It's been downhill for years. They still have the best bread around. The issue is that the prices keep going up but the quality has gone down. The last several torpedoes that I have ordered are very skimpy on the toppings. It cost almost ten dollars for four pieces of ham, six slices of salami. They have the deluxe option, which has the same amount of toppings that the regular used to have, but at a big upcharge. It... read more.
